

What is this course?

In a nutshell, the Licensed Practitioner of NLP™ is a 9-Day immersive and highly interactive course where you will learn how to:

- ✓ Connect and communicate more exquisitely
- ✓ Overcome mental and emotional challenges
- ✓ Build confidence and personal power
- ✓ Become far more influential and persuasive
- ✓ Achieve inspiring goals and realise desires
- ✓ And create lasting change rapidly

How you will learn more easily.

Going well beyond typical teaching methods, Darren has carefully designed this unique course to raise your learning levels to new heights, because he uses NLP to teach NLP.

And, to the extent that the conscious mind can only handle so much, Darren will show you how to gain greater access to the deeper powers of your unconscious.

Now, just like riding a bike, you can feel confident that your new skills and abilities will be available when you need them automatically.

What you will learn in more detail.

The Presuppositions of NLP: Useful principles and beliefs that serve the NLP Practitioner well

Inducing Unconscious Rapport: How to bond and create trust with anyone in moments

Representational Systems: Understand how people build their unique internal maps of reality

Sensory Language: Get inside the minds of others to see, hear and feel things the way they do for even deeper rapport and influence

Calibration & Sensory Acuity: Improve your ability to read people by recognising minute shifts in appearance and behavior

Eye Patterns: Read the internal processes people are accessing from moment to moment

SMARTER Goals: Darren's method for designing well-formed outcomes and inspiring the mind to pursue them with passion

Submodalities: How the mind encodes the meanings of our perceptions and tools for changing them rapidly

Anchoring: How we are programmed by external and internal stimuli, and how to create or change automatic responses

Hypnosis: Induce altered states for accessing vast unconscious resources and create inspiring transformation

Milton Model: How to unconsciously connect and elegantly influence with hypnotic language patterns

Driving Values: Harness emotional forces for determining direction, eliminating conflicts and inspiring motivation

Expanding Beliefs: Get the rules that control decisions, affect perspectives and learn how to influence them for good

Frame Control / Reframing: Elegantly transform problems and objections by creating new meanings for them

Meta Model: Get to the heart of distortions, generalisations, and deletions in language

Challenging Presuppositions: Learn to influence using elegant language structures and read people's internal maps based on their language

Strategies: Discover the internal processes that drive complex behaviours, such as how people make decisions, get motivated and perform any behaviour

Modelling: This is the essence of NLP learning, how to acquire the skills of geniuses

Timelines: Learn how the mind encodes experiences in time and how we can access and alter them

A few of the techniques / patterns you will learn.

Power State+: Get into a highly resourceful state quickly

Revivification: Recall resourceful states from the past for use now and in the future

Swish Patterns: Change responses to old triggers and/or create new ones
-> a very powerful and versatile pattern!

Shrink, Blink, Swipe Technique: Neutralize / diminish negative feelings triggered by specific people or things

Collapsing Anchors: Overpower triggers to negative responses with positive ones

Mapping Across: Use submodalities to change the response to specific things (like food, for example)

Transforming Limiting Beliefs: Use submodalities to neutralize limiting beliefs and/or create empowering ones

New Behavior Generator: Use unconscious modelling to alter responses to certain situations / triggers

5-Minute Hypnotist Pattern: A simple and reliable process for inducing a deep trance state in minutes

Decision Transformer Technique: Utilize timelines and altered states for eliminating guilt, regret, limiting beliefs and other negative states associated with decisions of the past

Visual Squash Technique: AKA Parts Integration; resolve internal conflicts and/or re-integrate disparate "parts" of the personality

The Phobia Fix: AKA Visual-Kinesthetic Dissociation; eliminate phobic responses and/or neutralize anchors that generate undesired states

Plus Many More: The long list of things you will learn includes a variety of language patterns and other techniques for gathering hidden information, inspiring influence and creating lasting change rapidly!

Evaluation and Certification

All students will participate in a final exam on the last day of the course prior to certification. During the exam, students will be evaluated while applying many of the skills learned in live, one-on-one scenarios.

From day one we will continually monitor progress and evaluate students' abilities in order to bring awareness to strong points and/or areas that could use improvement.

Our goal is to empower students with the highest level of skill each is uniquely capable of achieving, so trainers may give extra practice or study assignments where it will help.

The Mother of All Skill

Of course, practice is required to achieve mastery in any skill. To help you along, you'll be given materials and many opportunities to continue honing your skills to a sharp shine!

As a member of the WinVision Family, you will gain access to many exclusive bonus training, practice and public events designed to continue your growth for years to come!

Plus, our frequent events are also a great excuse to get together, have some fun and share our passion for transforming lives!

Crystal Credibility

Beyond the impressive skills your certificate represents, a great source of pride among our graduates is the clear right to present yourself as an officially Licensed Practitioner of Neuro-Linguistic Programming® with The Society of NLP™ and Dr. Richard Bandler.
